Applicant warrants any financial statements submitted as part of this application and the financial condition of applicant reflected thereon is substantially the same as the date of this application. Applicant acknowledges that this information has been submitted with knowledge that it will be relied upon in extending credit to the applicant. Applicant understands that Northwest Custom Apparel will make the usual credit investigations, including both business and personal credit reports, and authorizes applicant's bank to release information necessary for extending credit

We certify that all information on this form is correct, and that we agree to the proper payment in consideration of extended credit. Terms of sale, NET 30 or COD, will be noted on each invoice. If an invoice is past due, a 1½% late charge will be applied on the first day past terms. Any account past due is subject to be placed on COD terms. We agree to give written notice to Northwest Custom Apparel prior to the sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the stock or assets of our business; if we fail to do so, then we shall remain fully liable for any unpaid merchandise received by the buyer or transferee of the business.

It is understood this credit application in no way obligates Northwest Custom Apparel to extend credit to applicant. Applicant, in consideration of Northwest Custom Apparel granting credit, acknowledges that should Northwest Custom Apparel need to seek collection of amount, Pierce County, State of Washington, may be the jurisdiction of the applicant, regardless of the business location of applicant. Applicant agrees to pay interest and reasonable collection and attorney fees incurred by Northwest Custom Apparel in enforcing its rights to collection.
